

A Silk Under Skirt Sale

Forty of Them at $3.98.

It isn't necessary to go into details to explain why conditions make such an offering possible. Sufficient that this stirring news refers to an opportunity that is yours for SATURDAY, a chance the equal of which may not come again in a long time.

They are of a beautiful quality black taffeta silk, very wide through the hips and the body of the skirt; have an eleven inch flounce, tucked hemstitched and trimmed with bias bands, all over an eleven inch dust ruffle. The Skirt is elegantly made—all French seams. That we had the courage to buy forty of them all the same style, shows you the confidence we have in them.

At the price we are putting them in at they can be purchased only Saturday. We cannot accept mail or telephone orders on them; one to a customer is the limit. We want our customers to have the benefit of these values, so take a precaution against retailers buying them to sell again.

A Barre man went into the police station last night crying "Protection." He wasn't a dyed-in-the-wool Republican spreading the gospel of high tariff but a citizen who thought a man up the street had a grudge against him; hence his cry for "Protection." The police told him to "work out his own salvation" and the man annexed himself to a citizen who piloted him past the lair of the alleged man-with-a-grudge. The police, knowing the man, had a pretty strong idea that he had a delusion.

Perhaps a wrong impression was conveyed by the statement, in the report of the last aldermen's meeting, that a private telephone wire had been strung across Main street from the fire station to Chief Gladding's residence, in violation of the city ordinance, which requires permission from the city after ten days' public notice. The facts are, that a start was made to string the wire, but the work was suspended when the requirements of the ordinance were made known. The Standard Electric company had not strung the wire across the street, nor did the company nor Chief Gladding have any intention of violating the city ordinance. These statements may clear up some mistaken ideas.
